

History of Radiologists in Mosman, Cremorne and Neutral Bay 1975-2010

Compiled by Dr Charles Gay charlesgay@optusnet.com.au

The owners of radiology practices in the Whitehouse Cowles Rd Mosman in order

From 1975 onwards

Dr George Sylvester

Dr Margaret Kemp

Dr James Collopy

The Sanitorium Radiology Group-

Mr Peterson(radiographer)

This practice ceased in the early 2000s after considerable financial difficulties

Owners of radiology practices in Cremorne

Dr Nils Korner practices at two different sites in Spofforth Street finished approx 1990 when Nils Korner retired

Dr David Gudex practice at the corner of Macpherson Street and Military Road the only remaining practice after 2010

Other practitioners- Dr Peter Duffy worked at the Mosman and District Community Hospital and later at the Mosman Private Hospital (whilst it was still actively involved in surgery)

There was some radiology of a minor nature carried out at The Mosman Medical Centre and at 393 Medical Practice in the 70s and early 80s.

There were no radiology practices in Neutral Bay