Hospitals

Mosman District and Community Hospital 1 Ellamatta Avenue Mosman Privatised 1989 under threat of closure from Royal North Shore Hospital. (NSW Health Department) Became Mosman Private. Later stopped all surgical procedures. Now primarily geriatrics and psychiatry.

Land and buildings are owned by the community. The hospital business was run as a private entity by Hospitals Of Australia (Newcastle based) later Hospital Corporation of Australia which was taken over by Mayne Nicholas and became Toll. Now owned by Healthscope. The building and land remains in the ownership of the community through Twilight House which had emerged after being in partnership with Mosman District and Community Health Services both not for profit charitable organizations.

Alanbrook Private Hospital Hale Road Mosman.

Mainly psychiatric but had general private hospital bed status Later became Manors of Mosman (large retirement facility) Bed allocation partly used to form North Shore Private Hospital Bradleys Head Private Hospital 70 Bradleys Head Road. Closed 1990s.

Half site developed as private house , the other half still remains undeveloped.

There was a lot of legal conflict over the development post closure.

Eversham Hospital 1 Harrison Street Neutral Bay (psychiatric hospital) Later Northside Cremorne Owned by Ramscorp Kirribilli Private Hospital 126 Kirribilli Avenue Closed 1980s Now an apartment block. Bed allocation partly used in the formation of North Shore Private Hospital.
