What was Mrs. Macquarie thinking?

By Marianne Rhydderch

Richard Read (ca 1765-1827?), View of Government domain & part of Sydney taken from Bunkers Hill, N.S.Wales (ca 1820).

Marianne Rhydderch, a guide with the Historic Houses Trust, argues that behind this question lurks a much bigger one can we really know about the lives of colonial women when all the evidence comes through the male lens of assessment? Her talk challenges us to consider how a number of Sydney's important colonial buildings can be read as texts for women's lives.
