

Presents

First Immigrant Women

An illustrated talk by Dr Perry McIntyre

Perry McIntyre, local resident, and MHS member did her PhD on convict family reunion.

She has published and spoken extensively on immigration particularly 19th Century Irish.

The topic is based on her third book which concerns the single free immigrant women from England and Ireland who arrived in the 1830s as the government's attempt to balance the large male population.

Venue: Mosman Library (doors open 6.45-7.15pm)
605 Military Road, Mosman

Date: Wednesday 13th July 2011

Time: 7.00pm

Members Free
Visitors $5 donation

Tea and Coffee provided
For information ring 9969 9103